

Beef Bonanza

Our steer arrives this week. The students are very keen to start training. A huge thank you to Brendan Walters and Jeannie Harris for organising transportation. A huge thank you to Brendon Walters who will be caring for the steer over the school holidays.

NAIDOC Week

As NAIDOC week falls in the school holidays, we will be holding celebrations at school during week 1 of term 3. We will have a visiting performance, story time and some art and craft.

29th June 2015

I'd like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a safe and relaxing holiday. We would like to see everyone back in one piece. Staff start back on Monday 18th July and students return on Tuesday 19th July.

Staff Development Day

All staff will be travelling to Tamworth on Sunday 17th July to participate in a small schools conference. Everyone is looking forward to not only learning new things but having an opportunity to network with others.

On the Monday, staff will review the code of conduct, then work on effective strategies for teaching and assessing writing.

Awards

It is great to see so many students earning bronze, silver or gold awards. Congratulations to the following students who have earned their levels this term.

- Bronze: Reece McCandless
